

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

The staff at Platinum Dance Studio appreciates our student's and are privileged to educate them through dance.

Below you will find our Code of Conduct for Students, which outlines our Student's expectations from the Platinum Dance Studio's Director and Staff.

Please read and sign the following:

Students are expected to attend all classes and practices as scheduled. PLEASE BE ON TIME

Students who cannot attend a class or practice must contact the studio prior to class, so we know not to expect you that day. Please try to minimize absences, of course illnesses or crisis's are the exceptions.

Students are expected to be early or ON TIME. At the start of each class there is a warm up, which is imperative to the safety of the students.

Students should use the restroom prior to class to avoid disruptions during instruction.

Students are required to dress according to our dance studios DRESS CODE - Very important - NO STREET shoes in the dance room and no dance shoes in the streets.

Students should label ALL of their belongings. Lost and Found will be available. Studio will have the right to donate items to Good Will after one month of unclaimed items.

Students are expected to show Complete Respect for the studios Director and Staff, as well as their fellow students. Treat others as you would like to be treated.

Students should always participate in dance competitions, performances, and other events with Integrity and Professionalism.

Students understand that inappropriate behavior will have them removed from the dance class. We have a zero-tolerance behavior policy and until the staff, along with the parent, can resolve these behavioral issues, the student will not be able to return to class.

Students should stay focused and pay full attention during dance instruction. There should be no talking while the instructors are teaching and choreographing. Questions should wait until the appropriate time during instruction breaks.

Students will bring NO cell phones, food, drinks (except water) gum, candy or snacks into the class.

Students will be expected to clean up after themselves while at the Dance Studio and treat it and all possessions with the utmost respect and care. Also, please keep hands off the mirrors.

Students are encouraged to work as a team and form new friendships with the other students in class. Always stay positive while you are at dance. Have fun and be happy!
